Dear Doctors / Delegates-

The organizing committee is pleased to invite you to participate in the Workshop on “Innovations in Teaching and Learning Anatomy” which is being organized by Department of Anatomy, ESIC Medical College, Sanathnagar, Hyderabad.

Different students will have different learning styles. It is important to use multiple techniques in order to effectively instruct as many different types of learners as possible to the best of our abilities. Using innovative strategies in teaching anatomy will definitely help in how to shape your teaching skills to suit the needs of an integrated curriculum of this modern era.

We proudly say that this workshop aims at new objectives which can reshape the anatomy teaching and learning towards the deep understanding of key concepts.

Kindly block your date i.e. on 6th November (Sunday) 2016 for this exciting event.
